This requirement does not apply, however, to public quoted prices of securities that have an active market, or where otherwise provided by regulations of the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC).

Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or opinion of the certified public accountant.

3. The Units responsible for Implementation

Finance Department of the Company shall be the execution unit for the implementation of acquiring or disposing the securities.

4. Transaction Process

The transaction process for acquiring or disposing of securities shall follow the provisions of the operation regarding Investment Cycle of the Internal Control System.

5. The management of securities shall take a reference to the "Procedures for Investment Management" of the Company.

Article 6: The Appraisal and Operating Procedures for Acquisition or Disposal of Real Property, Equipment or the right-of-use assets

1. The means of price determination and supporting reference materials

In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or the right-of-use assets, the unit who makes use of that shall submit an application, and the unit who is in charge of assets management, the unit who is in charge of procurement shall take a reference to the government assessed value, appraised value, the actual transaction price of real property located in neighborhood, the recent transaction price of the identical property etc., and make it by one of the means of comparing the price, negotiating the price or call for tenders.

2. Inquiring the Experts for Appraisal Report

In acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or the right-of-use assets where the transaction amount reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or above, unless transacting with a domestic government agency, contracting others to build on its own land, or contracting others to build on rented land, or acquiring or disposing of equipment or the right-of-use assets held for business use, an appraisal report should be obtained prior to the date that the transaction occurred from a Professional Appraiser and the transaction shall comply with the following provisions:

- (1) Where due to special circumstances it is necessary to give a limited price, specified price, or special price as a reference basis for the transaction price, the transaction shall be submitted for approval in advance by the Board of Directors, and the same procedure shall be followed if there is any change to the terms and conditions of the transaction in the future.
- (2) Where the transaction amount is NT$1 billion or more, appraisals from two or more professional appraisers shall be obtained.
- (3) Where any one of the following circumstances applies with respect to the professional appraiser's appraisal results, unless all the appraisal results for the assets to be acquired are higher than the transaction amount, or all the appraisal results for the assets to be disposed of are lower than the transaction amount, a certified public accountant shall be engaged to perform the appraisal and render a specific opinion regarding the reason for the discrepancy and the appropriateness of the transaction price:

- I. The discrepancy between the appraisal result and the transaction amount is 20% or more of the transaction amount.
 - II. The discrepancy between the appraisal results of two or more professional appraisers is 10% or more of the transaction amount.
- (4) No more than 3 months may elapse between the date of the appraisal report issued by a professional appraiser and the contract execution date; provided, where the publicly announced current value for the same period is used and not more than 6 months have elapsed, an opinion may still be issued by the original professional appraiser.

Where the Company acquires or disposes of assets through court auction procedures, the evidentiary documentation issued by the court may be substituted for the appraisal report or opinion of the certified public accountant.

3. The degree of authority delegated, the levels to which authority is delegated, and the Units responsible for Implementation

The acquisition or disposal of real property, equipment or the right-of-use assets shall be executed by the department who makes use of such assets and the unit being in charge of assets management, and submitted to the authorized officer for approval.

4. Transaction Process

The transaction process for acquiring or disposing of real property, equipment or right-of-use assets shall follow the provisions of the operation regarding real property, factory building or equipment cycle of the Internal Control System.

Article 7: Related Party Transactions

1. In terms of the acquisition or disposal of the assets between the Company and related party except the related resolution procedure and evaluation regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price etc. shall be made pursuant to Article 5, Article 6, Article 8 and provisions hereunder, where the transaction amount is 10% or more of the total assets of the Company, appraisals from professional appraisers or opinions from certified public accountant shall be also obtained pursuant to Article 5, Article 6 and Article 8.

The amount set forth in the preceding paragraph shall be calculated pursuant to Article 8-1.

When judging whether a trading counterparty is a related party, in addition to legal formalities, the substance of the relationship shall also be considered.

2. When the Company acquires or disposes of real property or the right-of-use assets from or to a related party, or when it acquires or disposes of assets or the right-of-use assets other than real property from or to a related party and the transaction amount reaches 20% or more of the Company's paid-in capital, 10% or more of the Company's total assets, or NT$300 million or more, except in trading of domestic government bonds, bonds under repurchase and resale agreements, or subscription or redemption of money market funds issued by domestic securities investment trust enterprises, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the following information is submitted to the audit committee for approval, as well as being approved by the Board of Directors:

- (1) The purpose, necessity and anticipated benefit of the acquisition or disposal of assets.
- (2) The reason for choosing the related party as a trading counterparty.
- (3) With respect to the acquisition of real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party, information regarding appraisal of the reasonableness of the proposed transaction terms in accordance with the provisions under paragraph 3 to paragraph 6 in this Article 7.
- (4) The date and price at which the related party originally acquired the real property, the original trading counterparty, and that trading counterparty's relationship to the company and the related party.
- (5) Monthly cash flow forecasts for the year commencing from the anticipated month of signing of the contract, and evaluation of the necessity of the transaction, and reasonableness of the funds utilization.
- (6) An appraisal report from a professional appraiser or opinion of the certified public accountant which shall be obtained in compliance with this Article.
- (7) Restrictive covenants and other important stipulations associated with the transaction.

With respect to the transactions set forth below between the Company and its parent or subsidiaries, or between the subsidiaries in which the Company directly or indirectly holds 100% of the issued shares or authorized capital, the Company's Board of Directors may delegate the Chairman to decide such matters subject to a certain amount and have the decisions subsequently submitted to and ratified by the next Board of Directors' meeting:

- (1) The acquisition or disposal of equipment or the right-of-use assets thereof held for business use.
- (2) The acquisition or disposal of real property right-of-use assets held for business use.

When a matter is submitted for discussion by the Board of Directors pursuant to preceding paragraph, the Board of Directors shall take into full consideration each independent director's opinions. If an independent director objects to or expresses reservations about any matter, it shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board of Directors' meeting.

When any transaction set forth in paragraph 2 of this Article is made by the Company or any subsidiary that is not a domestic public company and the transaction amount reaches 10% or more of the Company's total assets, the Company may not proceed to enter into a transaction contract or make a payment until the matters set forth in paragraph 2 of this Article have been approved by the Shareholders' Meeting. However, this provision does not apply to the transaction between the Company and its parent or subsidiaries, or between the subsidiaries.

The calculation of the transaction amount referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article shall be made in accordance with Article 11, paragraph 2, and the term "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. In term of the amounts that have been submitted to the Shareholders' Meeting for approval or submitted to the Audit Committee, and approved by the Board of Directors pursuant to these Procedures, they shall be exempt from being counted toward the transaction amount.

3. When the Company acquires real property or the right-of-use assets from the related party, it shall evaluate the reasonableness of the transaction costs by following means (where the land and structures thereupon are combined as a single property purchased or leased in one transaction, the transaction costs for the land and the structures may be separately appraised in accordance with either of the following means):
 - (1) Based upon the related party's transaction price plus necessary interest on funding and the costs to be duly borne by the buyer. The term of "Necessary interest on funding" hereunder is imputed as the weighted average interest rate on borrowing in the year the company purchases the property; provided, it may not be higher than the maximum of non-financial industry lending rate announced by the Ministry of Finance.
 - (2) Total loan value appraisal from a financial institution where the related party has previously created a mortgage on the property as security for a loan; provided, the actual cumulative amount loaned by the financial institution shall have been 70% or more of the financial institution's appraised loan value of the property and the period of the loan shall have been 1 year or more. However, this shall not apply where the financial institution is a related party of one of the trading counterparties.
4. The Company that acquires real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party and appraises the cost of the real property or the right-of-use assets in accordance with the provisions set forth in the preceding paragraph, shall also engage a certified public accountant to check the appraisal and render a practical opinion.
5. Where the Company acquires real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party and one of the following circumstances exists, the acquisition shall be conducted in accordance with paragraph 2 of this Article 7, and the preceding two paragraphs do not apply:
 - (1) The related party acquired the real property or the right-of-use assets through inheritance or as a gift.

- (2) More than 5 years have elapsed from the time the related party signed the contract to obtain the real property or the right-of-use assets to the signing date for the current transaction.
 - (3) The real property is acquired through signing of a joint development contract with the related party or by engaging the Company's related party to construct the real property on the Company's owned land or leased land.
 - (4) The acquisition of real property right-of-use assets held for business use between the Company and its parent or subsidiaries, or between the subsidiaries in which the Company directly or indirectly holds 100% of the issued shares or authorized capital.
6. When the Company acquires real property from a related party and the results of the Company's appraisal conducted in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Article are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the matter shall be handled in accordance with paragraph 7 of this Article. However, where the following circumstances exist, and objective evidence has been submitted and specific opinions on reasonableness have been obtained from a professional real property appraiser and a certified public accountant have been obtained, this restriction shall not apply:
- (1) Where the related party acquired undeveloped land or leased land for development, it may submit proof of compliance with one of the following conditions:
 - I. Where undeveloped land is appraised in accordance with the means in paragraph 3 of this Article and structures according to the related party's construction cost plus reasonable construction profit are valued in excess of the actual transaction price. The term of "Reasonable Construction Profit" shall be deemed to be the average gross operating profit margin of the related party's construction division over the most recent three years or the gross profit margin for the construction industry for the most recent period as announced by the Ministry of Finance, whichever is lower.
 - II. Completed transactions by unrelated parties within the preceding year involving other floors of the same property or neighboring or closely valued parcels of land, where the land area and transaction terms are similar after calculation of reasonable price discrepancies in floor or area land prices in accordance with standard property trading or leasing market practices.
 - (2) Where the Company acquiring real property, or obtaining real property right-of-use assets through leasing, from a related party provides evidence that the terms of the transaction are similar to the terms of transactions completed for the acquisition of neighboring or closely valued parcels of land of a similar size by unrelated parties within the preceding year.
Completed transactions for neighboring or closely valued parcels of land in the subparagraph 1 and subparagraph 2 of this paragraph in principle refers to parcels on the same or an adjacent block and within a distance of no more than 500 meters or parcels close in publicly announced current value; transaction for similarly sized parcels of similar land area in principle refers to transactions completed by unrelated parties for parcels with a land area of no less than 50% of the property in the planned transaction; the term of "within the preceding year" refers to the year preceding the actual date of acquisition of the real property or the right-of-use assets.

7. Where the Company acquires real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party and the results of the Company's appraisal conducted in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 and paragraph 6 of this Article are uniformly lower than the transaction price, the following steps shall be taken:
 - (1) A special reserve shall be set aside in accordance with paragraph 1, Article 41 of the Securities and Exchange Act against the difference between the transaction price and the appraised cost of real property or the right-of-use assets, and may not be distributed or used for capital increase or issuance of bonus shares. Where the Company uses the equity method to account for its investment in another company, then the special reserve called for under paragraph 1, Article 41, of the Securities and Exchange Act shall be set aside pro rata in a proportion consistent with the share of the Company's equity stake in the other company. The special reserve set aside under the preceding paragraph shall not be utilized until it has recognized a loss on decline in market value of the assets it purchased or leased at a premium, or they have been disposed of, the lease has been terminated, or adequate compensation has been made, or the status quo ante has been restored, or there is other evidence confirming that there was nothing unreasonable about the transaction, and the Financial Supervisory Commission has given its consent.
 - (2) Audit committee shall comply with the provisions of Article 218 of the Company Law.
 - (3) Actions taken pursuant to subparagraph 1 and subparagraph 2 under this paragraph shall be reported to Shareholders' Meeting, and the details of the transaction shall be disclosed in the annual report and any investment prospectus.
8. The Company shall also comply with the provisions of paragraph 7 in this Article when obtaining real property or the right-of-use assets from a related party if there is other evidence indicating that the transaction was not an arm's length transaction.

Article 8: Acquisition or Disposal of Intangible Assets or the right-of-use assets or Membership

In acquiring or disposing of the intangible assets or the right-of-use assets or membership where the transaction amount reaches 20% of the Company's paid-in capital or NT$300 million or above, unless transacting with a domestic government agency, the Company shall engage a certified public accountant, prior to the date of occurrence of the event, to provide an opinion regarding the reasonableness of the transaction price.

Article 8-1: The calculation of the transaction amount referred to in Article 5, Article 6 and Article 8 shall be made in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 11, and the term of "within the preceding year" as used herein refers to the year preceding the date of occurrence of the current transaction. In terms of the amounts that the appraisals from professional appraisers or opinions from certified public accountants have been obtained pursuant to these Procedures shall be exempted to be counted toward the transaction amount.
