The compensation for the Chairman and Directors shall be determined by the Board and shall be based on each director's participation and contribution to the Company's operation and shall take global industry standards into account.

The percentage of shares held by the directors shall be governed by the competent authority.

The Company's directors shall be elected by adopting the candidate nomination system specified in Article 192-1 of the Company Act. The shareholders shall elect the directors from among the nominees listed in the roster of director candidates.

The professional qualifications, restrictions on both shareholding and concurrent positions held, determination of independence, method of nomination and other requirements with regard to the independent directors shall be set forth in accordance with the Securities and Exchange Act.

Article 16-1 In compliance with Article 14-4 of the Securities and Exchange Act, the Company shall establish an Audit Committee, which shall consist of all independent directors. The Audit Committee or the members of Audit Committee shall be held accountable for responsibilities specified under the Company Act, the Securities and Exchange Act and other regulations.

Article 17 The institutional shareholders of the Company reserve the rights to appoint representatives as candidates for director nomination, and replace appointed representatives serving as directors prior to the end of their terms.

Article 18 The Board shall be organized by the Directors. The Chairman shall be elected among the Directors by approval of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of all Directors. The Chairman shall have the authority to represent the Company. In the case where the Chairman is on leave or cannot exercise his or her authority with due cause, a proxy shall be appointed in accordance with Article 208 of the Company Act.

Article 19 Unless otherwise specified by law, the Board meetings shall be convened by the Chairman. The director with the majority of the votes shall convene the first meeting in each new term of the Board.

Directors shall attend all Board meetings in person. If the meeting is conducted through video conferencing, any director attending the meeting via video conference shall be deemed present at the meeting in person.

A director may, by written authorization, appoint another director to attend on his or her behalf any meeting of the Board, and to vote for him or her on all matters presented at the meeting, but no director may act as proxy for more than one director.

Meetings of the Board shall be convened upon written notice mailed, electronic transmission, or fax to all directors, at least seven days, unless in case of urgent circumstances, prior to the date of the meeting, specifying the date and place of the meeting and the agenda. The meeting of the Board shall be held at least once every quarter, or at any time.

Article 20 Each director shall, for every resolution for which a vote is required, entitled to one (1) vote. Unless otherwise specified in the Company Act or the Articles of Incorporation, the resolutions of the Board shall be adopted by a majority vote of those Directors present at a meeting attended by a majority of all Directors. Article 21 The Company shall indemnify its directors by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director of the Company. The Company shall purchase insurance on behalf of its directors to mitigate loss and manage risks.

Article 22 The Company may, by resolution of the Board, appoint one Chief Executive Officer and one or more Vice President(s) or such officer(s) to meet the Company's operational or managerial needs. The appointment, dismissal, and remuneration packages for the officers are determined in accordance with Article 29 of the Company Act.

Section V Financial Reports

Article 23 The fiscal year of the Company shall be from January 1 of each year to December 31 of the same year. After the close of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare final accounts for that year.

Article 24 After the close of each fiscal year, the following reports shall be prepared by the Board, and be submitted to the Meeting for acceptance.

1. Business Report
2. Financial Statements
3. Proposal Concerning Appropriation of Profits or Losses

Article 25 If there is any pre-tax profit, 1% to 25% of the profit shall be distributed to eligible employees in the form of cash or stock for profit sharing, and the compensation distributions for non-executive employees shall not be less than 10% of the total employees' compensation for the year. No more than 2% of the profit shall be distributed to directors for compensation. The Board shall prepare separate distribution proposals for employees and directors and present both at the Meeting for approval.

If there is accumulated losses, the pre-tax profit should offset the accumulated losses and the remainder shall be distributed to employees and directors using the aforementioned thresholds.

Article 25-1 If there is any profit in an annual general financial statement of the Company, such profit shall be distributed in the following orders:

1. Reserve for tax payments.
2. Offset accumulated losses, if any.
3. Legal reserve, which is 10% of remaining net profits after deducting the aforementioned items. However, this restriction does not apply in the event that the amount of the accumulated legal reserve equals or exceeds the Company's total capital stock.
4. Allocation or reverse of special reserves as required by law or government authorities.
5. The remaining net profits and retained earnings from previous years will be allocated as shareholders' dividend. The Board will prepare a distribution proposal and submit it to the Meeting for review and approval by a resolution.

Since the Company is in an industry in a growth phase, the dividend policy shall take into consideration factors such as the Company's current and future investment and capital needs, and capital budgeting plans. The proposal should strike a balance between the shareholders' benefits and the Company's long-term financial plans. Dividends to shareholders shall not be less than 50% of the remaining retained earnings available for distribution and may be distributed in cash or in stock. Cash dividends shall not be lower than 10% of total dividends to shareholders. Each year the Board shall prepare a profit distribution proposal and present it at the Meeting for approval.

When a special reserve is appropriated by the Company in accordance with the law, with respect to the insufficient surplus amount of the "cumulative net increases in fair value measurement of investment properties from prior period" and the "cumulative net debit balance reserves from prior period", an amount of special reserve equal to the amount appropriated from the prior unappropriated earnings shall be unappropriated first before the distribution of profits. If any insufficient remains, it shall be unappropriated from the amount of net profit for current period and items other than net profit that are included directly in the unappropriated earnings for current period.

Article 26 Dividends will be paid to the shareholders of record as of the ex-dividend date.

Section VI Supplementary Provisions

Article 27 Detailed procedures of business operations shall be determined by the Board.

Article 28 In regard to all matters not provided for in these Articles of Incorporation, the Company Act and relevant rules and regulations of the Republic of China shall govern.

Article 28-1 The Company may withdraw from public offering upon shareholder approval at the Meeting and submission of a request for withdrawal to the competent authority.
